Citation

- Citing Items
Supports all the major styles (Chicago, MLA, APA, Vancouver, etc.) as well as a great many journal-specific styles.
- Word Processor Integration
In-text citations, footnotes and endnotes are all supported.
- Automatic Bibliographies
Using the word processor plugins makes it possible to switch citation styles for the entire document at once or automatically generate a bibliography from the items cited.
- Manual Bibliographies
Zotero can insert citations and bibliographies into any text field or program.

Collaboration

Syncing

Library items are synced through the Zotero server, while file syncing uses your own web services to sync files such as PDFs, images or audio/video.

Zotero Server

Share your library with others or create a custom C.V. from selected items.

Groups

Zotero users can create collaborative or interest groups. Shared group libraries make it possible to collaboratively manage research sources and materials, both online and through the Zotero client. Zotero.org can be the hub of all your project group's research, communication and organization.
